HERE AND THERE IN THE WHIRL OF SOCIETY

Secret Wedding
During Summer
Forms SurpriseRomance of Past Season Revealed to Friends by Mr.
and Mrs. E. T. Barlow

Announcement has just been made of the wedding of Miss Gladys Draney and E. T. Barlow, which took place July 12 at Farmington, Utah. The young couple succeeded in keeping their marriage a secret until the early part of the week, when a number of their friends questioned them closely, resulting in the marriage announcement.

During an outing at Lagoon, they managed to slip away from their friends and were married at Farmington. Following the announcement of the wedding, Mrs. Barlow was the complimented guest Thursday evening at a miscellaneous shower given by her sister, Mrs. W. H. James and Mrs. J. H. Atkinson. An evening of delightful enjoyment was spent. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses at the close of the evening. The dining room was beautifully decorated with pink chrysanthemums and small wedding bells. A large kewpie doll, prettily dressed as a bride, formed the centerpiece for the table. Small kewpie dolls were used as place cards. Ribbons were attached to the smaller kewpies and were fastened to a wedding bell, suspended directly below the chandelier. Mrs. James and Mrs. Atkinson were assisted by Mrs. Norman Van Weenen and Mrs. Bert Neal.

The bride is well known in Ogden. She was formerly employed as a stenographer for the Baker Coal and Lumber company. Mr. Barlow is employed in the engineering department of the Southern Pacific company. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow are planning to make their home in Ogden for the present.

With the exception of girls' chorus the cast for "The Three Twins," musical comedy, has been completed. The comedy is to be presented in Ogden by the American Legion Opera company and the Alhambra society of Ogden. The cast of principals has been given as follows:

Special arrangements are being made for some elaborate settings. A beautiful electric swing, similar to the one in "Fifi, Paff, Pout," is being constructed in Salt Lake. Some of the special features of the comedy will be the dancing numbers, three of which will be ballet dances by the Yama Yama girls and summer girls. Miss Bernice Harris will give a special oriental dance and Miss Ruth Stevens will also give a character dance.

Rehearsals are being held during the week. A general rehearsal will be held today at 2 o'clock in the Alhambra society club rooms.

Miss Alice Gordon was the complimented guest at a shower Thursday evening when a number of her friends surprised her at her home, on Ogden avenue and Thirty-fifth street. Martha Society Holds InterestOut-of-town Invitations Include Governor and Official Family

Much interest is being manifested by society people of Ogden in the forthcoming Martha Society Annual Ball, which will be given at the Berthana Tuesday, November 16. Much care is being taken with the final plans and arrangements and in all probability, the affair, which has always been one of the most brilliant of the season, will surpass any of those previously given.

Final arrangements will be completed Monday afternoon when the Martha society will meet with Mrs. J. H. Sparzo, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Sparzo on Tyler avenue. Announcements of appointments on the various committees will then be made.

Invitations have been sent to out-of-town guests, among them being Governor Simon Bamberger and his official family, who are expected to be present with other Salt Lake guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ekins entertained a number of their friends at a masquerade Halloween party Saturday, Oct. 30, at their home in Slaterville. Many unique and original characters were impersonated during the evening. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when the fun was further continued by games and recitations. At twelve o'clock a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by her two daughters. Among the fifty guests present were friends from Salt Lake, San Francisco and Denver. The Ekins home was decorated with Halloween colors, while gorgeous autumn leaves held prominence also in the decorations.
